Scripture: God, Humanity, and the Physical World

- So what did God intend?
- How is God healing humanity and creation, in and through Jesus?
- How do we interpret each of our desires? Why do we always desire more?

What Did God Intend?

- ³ Some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing him and asking, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?' (Matthew 19:3)

What Did God Intend?

- ³ Some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing him and asking, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?' (Matthew 19:3)
- Jewish Law
 - ¹ When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out from his house... (Dt.24:1; cf. Mark 10:12 to see Jesus apply this to wives divorcing their husbands)

What Did God Intend?

- 4 And he answered them and said, 'Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning...' (Matthew 19:4) '... from the beginning...' (Matthew 19:8)

One Pro-Gay Marriage Argument

- Genesis 2 says it is “not good” for Adam to be alone
- Marriage is God’s solution for loneliness
- Gay marriage is God’s solution for gay loneliness

The Lord said “It is not good for man
to be alone. I will make a helper
suitable for him.”

A Closer Look at Genesis

- Was marriage God's solution for Adam's loneliness?
- Can we read Genesis this way?

The Lord said "It is not good for man
to be alone. I will make a helper
suitable for him."

Ancient Near East Creation Stories

- ‘Christianity asserts that every individual human being is going to live for ever, and this must be either true or false...And immortality makes this other difference, which, by the by, has a connection with the difference between totalitarianism and democracy. If individuals live only seventy years, then a state, or a nation, or a civilisation, which may last for a thousand years, is more important than an individual. But if Christianity is true, then the individual is not only more important but incomparably more important, for he is everlasting and the life of the state or civilisation, compared with his, is only a moment.’

- C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity, p.73

Ancient Near East Creation Stories

- ‘Genesis 1 – 11 then constitutes a rejection of Babel and Babylon – of civilization itself, if its continuance requires human existence to be treated as a contingent [or secondary] good. For Genesis the existence of a new human was always good.’
 - Isaac Kikawada and Arthur Quinn, Before Abraham Was (Ignatius Press: San Francisco, 1989)
 - See also Tikva Frymer-Kensky, ‘The Atrahasis Epic and its Significance for Understanding Genesis 1-9,’ Biblical Archaeologist 40 (1977):152; B.S. A Closer Look at Genesis

- Genesis 1 – 11 is the biblical foundation of human rights and social justice
 - How we treat any new human being, especially someone else's child
- Children were meant to come from marriages
 - Genesis 2 cannot be pulled apart from Genesis 1
- Genesis 1 – 11 is one story, one literary unit
 - Lose the unity of the story =
 - Lose the critique of other stories =
 - Lose the basis for human rights and social justice

A Closer Look at Genesis

- Genesis 1:1 – 2:3
 - Introductory hymn
 - God made all life to multiply ‘after its kind’

Jesus on Scripture's Interpretation

- ⁴ And he answered them and said, 'Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate.' (Matthew 19:4 – 6)

Genesis 1:27

Genesis 2:24

Genesis 2:4 – 4:26 ("not good" for Adam to be alone) cannot be pulled apart from Genesis 1:1 – 2:3 ("be fruitful and multiply")

Jesus on Scripture's Inspiration

- ⁴ And he answered them and said, 'Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate.' (Matthew 19:4 – 6)

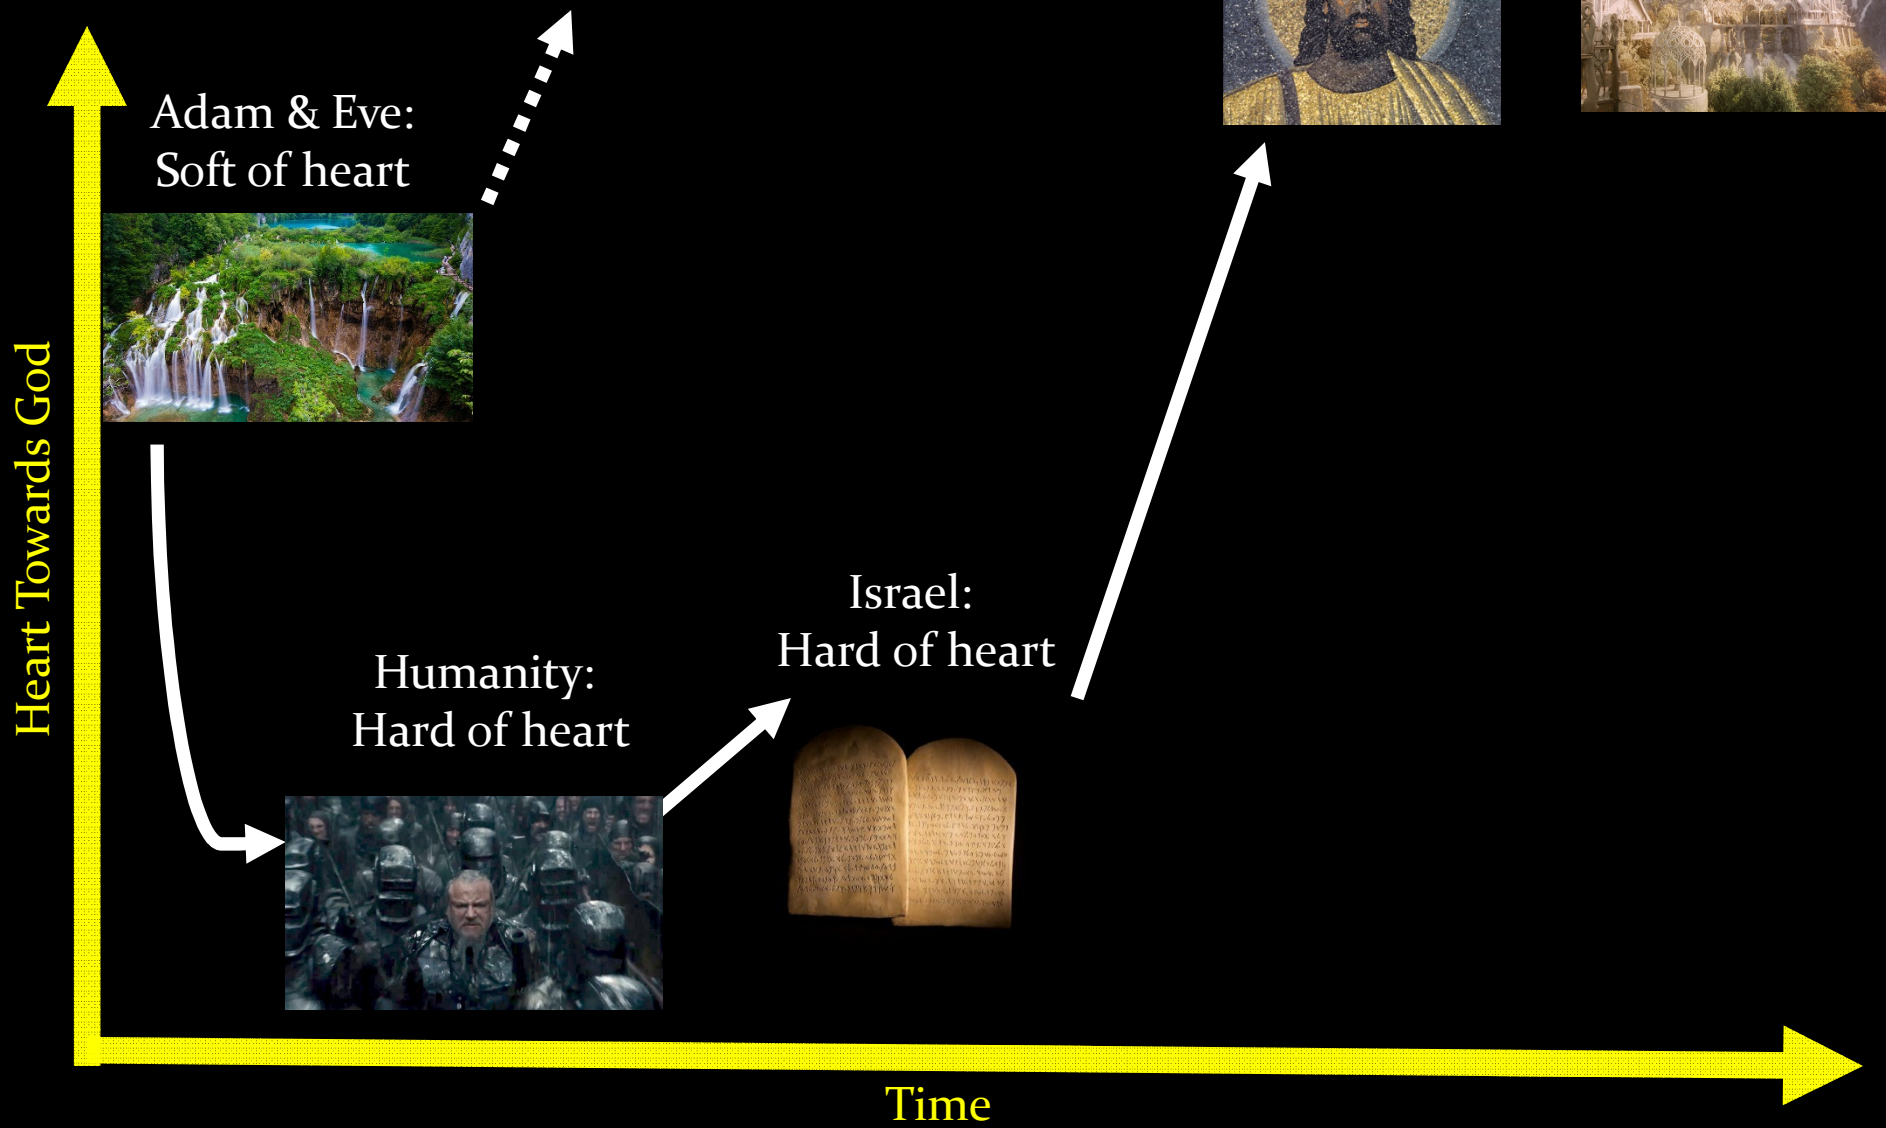

Why is the Jewish Law More Lenient on Divorce?

- ⁷ They said to him, ‘Why then did Moses command to give her a certificate of divorce and send her away?’
(Matthew 19:7)

Why is the Jewish Law More Lenient on Divorce?

- ⁸ He said to them, ‘Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way. ⁹ And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery.’ (Matthew 19:8 – 9)

Heart Towards God

What If I'm Not Married?

- ¹⁰ The disciples said to him, 'If the relationship of the man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry.' ¹¹ But he said to them, 'Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom it has been given.'
- ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb;
- and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men;
- and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven.
- He who is able to accept this, let him accept it.'
(Matthew 19:10 – 12)

For the Sake of the Kingdom

- For instance, there was the time when my friend Jono called me and asked me to be a godfather to his and his wife Megan's daughter Callie. Jono and Megan wanted to seal, with the sacrament of baptism, my relationship to Callie and to themselves. In an email I wrote to him afterward, I said, "I take comfort from this—that, in Jesus' economy, leaving the prospect of being a husband and father myself does not mean being without a family."

For the Sake of the Kingdom

- Or there was the time when my married friends Aidan and Melanie and I, recognizing how much we'd come to mean to each other, asked our minister friend Amy to come and pray a blessing over our friendship, solemnizing it and reminding us of the sort of commitment we'd embraced. In our living room, Amy set up an icon of Aelred of Rievaulx, the unofficial patron saint of friendship. She preached a brief homily from Psalm 121 on the theme of pilgrimage. "You three are companions on a pilgrimage to the heavenly city," she said. And then she consecrated bread and wine on our coffee table, pointing us to the ultimate Friend who gave his body and blood to make our love for each other possible.
