

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and Yeast (Luke 13:17 – 21)

¹⁷ As he said this, all his opponents were being humiliated; and the entire crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious

things being done by him. ¹⁸ So he was saying, 'What is the kingdom of God
like, and to what shall I compare it?

19 'It is like a
mustard seed,
which a man took
and threw into his
own garden;

and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air
nested in its branches.'

A photograph of a robin perched on a garden hose. The robin is facing right, with its characteristic orange breast and dark wings. The garden hose is coiled on a lawn, and the background is a lush green garden with pink flowers. The text 'How To Keep BIRDS OUT of Your Garden!' is overlaid on the image in pink and black fonts.

Ezekiel 31:2 'Behold, Assyria was a cedar
in Lebanon...

⁶ All the birds of the heavens nested in
its boughs,

And all great
nations lived under its shade.

²⁰ And again he said,
‘To what shall I
compare the kingdom of God?’

²¹ It is like leaven,
which a woman
took and hid in sixty pounds of flour
until it was all
leavened.'
