Undesirable Desires?

“Our bodies and those of others are composed entirely of filthy, smelly substances such as meat, bones, blood, pus, phlegm, saliva, excrement, urine, etc... the physical body of sentient beings is hardly worth cherishing... Therefore, this impure world is not worth craving or clinging to.”

—Dharma Master Thich Thien Tam, Pure Land Buddhist

Hints of More?

“The sweetest thing in all my life has been the longing...to find the place where all the beauty came from... If I find in myself a desire which no experience in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that I was made for another world.”

—C.S. Lewis, Till We Have Faces and Mere Christianity
