Discussions about race are not happening in the right places with the right people.

I feel blamed for my ancestors' actions.

I hate it when people say that racism is a thing of the past.

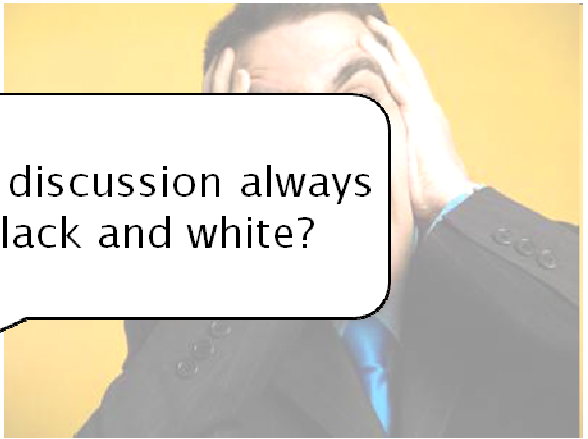

Don't assume that I feel oppressed just because I'm a minority.

If I speak freely, people will think that I'm racist.

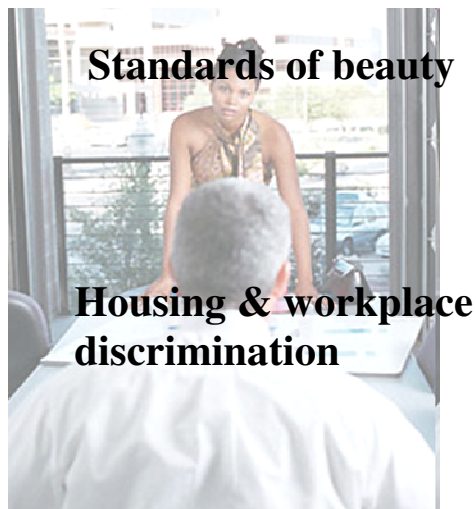

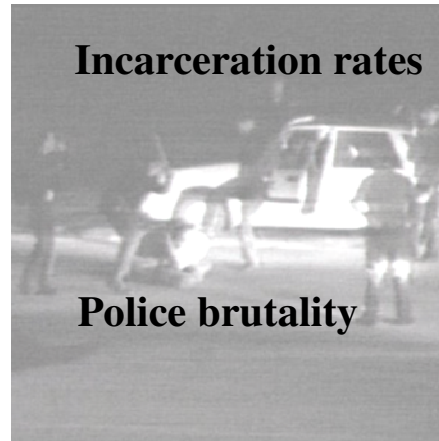

Just because I'm white doesn't mean I'm racist.

Why is the discussion always about black and white?

A pair of hands is shown from the bottom, cupping a small, vibrant green seedling with three leaves. The background is a clear blue sky with soft, white clouds. The text is overlaid on the image, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the hands and the seedling.

We don't evaluate people by what they have or how they look. . . . Now we look inside, and what we see is that anyone united with Christ gets a fresh start, is created new. The old life is gone; a new life burgeons!

-Paul of Tarsus, 1st century church planter
